

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

WWII Notes - 2

War in Europe

1. For Germany to prosper and grow, it needed more living space or _____.
2. One of Hitler's goals was to create a German Empire to last a thousand years called the _____.
3. Name the first two countries Germany invaded to acquire more living space.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
4. When Hitler and the Germans invaded _____ on March 12, 1938, the Germans announced _____ or Union.
5. During the second phase of expansion, Germany invaded the western border of Czechoslovakia known as the _____.
6. Hitler justified his attack by stating that the Czechs were _____ Germans.
7. During a meeting with the French Premier Daladier and British Prime Minister _____, Hitler vowed the Sudetenland would be his last territorial demand. The three leaders then signed the _____.
8. Chamberlain's political rival, _____, believed that Chamberlain gave up on British principals to pacify Hitler, also called _____.
9. Attacking Poland is crazy. What are the three reasons attacking Poland is an unwise decision for Germany.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

-
10. To avoid war with each other, Hitler and Stalin sign a _____ vowing to never attack each other.

 11. The German strategy of blitzkrieg or “ _____ ” depends on surprise, speed, and _____ to crush the enemy.

 12. The German air force is called the _____.

 13. Germany invades _____ from the west and the _____ invades from the east.

 14. After declaring war on Germany, the French set a line of defenses along the _____; however, troops from Germany and France just sit around waiting for battle. This Phony War or waiting was called the _____.
 15. Germany surprised the French by invading through _____ and the _____ forests. 330,000 French soldiers escaped to Britain under the leadership of _____.

 16. After the fall of France, Germany controlled the _____ while _____ controlled the South.

 17. The two month long German bomber attacks on cities and airfields of England was called the _____.

 18. Which country won this battle? _____